SAILING ITINERARY

DAY 1	Porto	(D)
	Board your ship at Douro Marina and settle into your cabin. After the embarkation formalities, enjoy some time to relax and get comfortable on board. In the evening, meet the crew during a welcome presentation, followed by a welcome dinner. The ship remains overnight in the area.
DAY 2	Régua / Pinão	(B, L, D)
	Enjoy a leisurely morning sailing along the Douro River and take in the breathtaking scenery of the Douro Valley. The terraced vineyards stretching along the hillsides create some of the most beautiful landscapes in Portugal. Around midday, arrive in Régua, the heart of the Douro wine region. In 1756, the Royal General Company of Agriculture of the Douro Vineyards was established here, creating the world's first officially designated wine region. The surrounding hillsides are covered with vineyards and offer spectacular views from scenic overlooks such as São Leonardo da Galafura and São António do Loureiro. In the afternoon, continue to Pinhão, considered the center of the Douro wine region and home to many historic wine estates, or quintas. Be sure to see the beautiful Pinhão railway station, famous for its traditional Portuguese blue-and-white tile panels depicting scenes from the Douro Valley. Optional: Evening visit to a traditional quinta in Avessada, including dinner.
DAY 3	Poncinho / Vega De Terrón	(B, L, D)
	This morning, arrive in Pocinho, a small village in northern Portugal and the former terminus of the historic Douro railway line. The railway once followed the river closely, with the tracks running just a few yards from the water in places. In the afternoon, arrive at Vega de Terrón, near the Spanish border, where the Águeda River meets the Douro. The area is part of the spectacular Arribes del Duero Natural Park, known for its dramatic cliffs and deep river gorges. Optional: Excursion to the historic village of Castelo Rodrigo, one of Portugal's picturesque hilltop villages.
DAY 4	Barca D' Alva	(B, L, D)
	Arrive in Barca d'Alva, a charming village located along the Portuguese-Spanish border. For more than a century, this was an important railway connection between Porto and Salamanca. Today, the surrounding area is known for its dramatic scenery within the Douro International Natural Park, where the Douro and Águeda Rivers form a natural border between Portugal and Spain. Optional: Full-day excursion to Salamanca, Spain, including lunch. Discover the historic city center, famous for its beautiful architecture, lively plazas, and prestigious university.

DAY 6	Régua / Douro Marina	(B, L, D)
	Depart early this morning from Régua and begin the scenic journey toward Porto. Relax on deck and enjoy the beautiful landscapes of the Douro Valley as the ship makes its way downstream.
