SAILING ITINERARY

DAY 1	Düsseldorf, Germany	(D)
	Boarding begins at 4:00 PM. Enjoy a welcome cocktail before settling in for a free afternoon to explore at your leisure. Dinner and overnight onboard.
DAY 2	Koblenz, Germany	(B, L, D)
	Germany's Historic River City. Early this morning, we arrive in Koblenz, one of Germany's oldest and most picturesque cities. Located at the world-famous German Corner, where the Rhine and Moselle Rivers meet, Koblenz is surrounded by rolling vineyards, forests, and dramatic hills. With more than 2,000 years of history, the city offers a fascinating blend of natural beauty and historic charm. Join a guided walking tour of the city. Overnight onboard.
DAY 3	Mannheim, Germany	(B, L, D)
	Mannheim and the Splendor of Heidelberg Today we arrive in Mannheim, the birthplace of the automobile, where Carl Benz introduced the world's first automobile in 1886. Modern Mannheim is a vibrant center of culture and innovation, featuring the magnificent Baroque Palace—one of the largest in Europe—and the city's iconic Water Tower. Star Excursion (Optional): Discover the breathtaking Heidelberg Castle, one of Germany's most famous landmarks and a symbol of German Romanticism. Overnight onboard.
DAY 4	Strasbourg, France	(B, L, D)
	The Essence of Alsace. This morning we arrive in Strasbourg, the capital of France's Alsace region. Its historic center, the Grande Île, was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1988 and is one of Europe's finest examples of a medieval city. Explore the charming Petite France district, once home to fishermen and millers, with its picturesque canals and half-timbered houses. The city's magnificent Gothic cathedral dominates the skyline and is one of Strasbourg's most celebrated landmarks. Enjoy an optional guided tour of the city's highlights (minimum group size required). This afternoon, relax as we continue sailing along the Rhine and take in the spectacular scenery from the Sun Deck. Overnight onboard.

DAY 5	Speyer & Mainz, Germany	(B, L, D)
	Legacy of Emperors This morning we arrive in Speyer, home to the world's largest surviving Romanesque cathedral. Designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the cathedral serves as the final resting place of several Holy Roman Emperors. Spend the afternoon cruising the scenic Rhine while enjoying panoramic views from the Sun Deck. This evening we arrive in Mainz, a city with nearly 2,000 years of history. Dominated by its magnificent cathedral, Mainz's charming Old Town features narrow medieval streets, inviting cafés, boutiques, and the beautiful Kirschgarten square with its romantic half-timbered houses.
DAY 6	Mainz & Rüdesheim, Germany	(B, L, D)
	Tradition and Scenic Beauty. This afternoon we arrive in Rüdesheim, one of Germany's most beloved wine towns. Discover historic landmarks including Klunkhardshof, the medieval Adler Tower, the thousand-year-old Brömser Castle, and the ruins of Ehrenfels Castle. Enjoy another opportunity to admire the Rhine's stunning landscapes from the Sun Deck before joining a guided walking tour of the town. Overnight onboard.
DAY 7	Andernach, Germany	(B, L, D)
	History Along the Rhine This morning we depart Rüdesheim and cruise toward Andernach, famous for its impressive cold-water geyser. We arrive around 1:00 PM. With more than 2,000 years of history, Andernach offers a wealth of remarkable landmarks, including the 184-foot-tall Round Tower, St. Mary's Cathedral (Mariendom), the historic Rhine Crane, the medieval Mikveh, and beautifully preserved city walls. Enjoy a walk through this charming historic town before returning to the ship. Overnight onboard.
DAY 8	Düsseldorf, Germany	(B)
	After breakfast, disembark the ship.
